For immediate release

Versatalis Payment Solutions is proud to announce that we are now able to offer “full service” Discover card processing for new merchants. By offering Full Service Discover card processing, Versatalis can now off prospective merchants the following:

- Discover Card transactions will be settled with Visa and MasterCard
- Faster funding time
- Discover transaction data is included on V/MC Merchant Statements
- Better rates for Discover transactions

Offering full service Discover card processing is another example of our commitment to offer the most comprehensive payment processing solutions available.

Full service Discover card processing is not yet available to current merchants. We anticipate having the ability to offer this service to our current customers as early as May, 2009. When this is available, Versatalis will announce the full scope and effect this new program will have on current customers.

To see how Versatalis can help you and your company, please contact our sales department as soon as possible.
